

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

United States of America,

Plaintiff,

Case No. 18-20495

v.

Hon. David M. Lawson

Ibraheem Izzy Musaibli,

Defendant.

_____ /

STIPULATION TO EXTEND FILING DATE FOR SENTENCING MEMORANDUMS

Ibraheem Izzy Musaibli was convicted of multiple counts on January 30, 2023 by a jury. The Court set June 15, 2023, as the date sentencing is to occur in this case. Sentencing memoranda for the parties are currently due on June 8, 2023. Since the jury trial, the parties have diligently worked to prepare for sentencing.

The initial presentence report was shared with the parties on March 29, 2023. Defense counsel has met with Mr. Musaibli since March 29, 2023, to discuss the presentence report and advise him of the issues contained within, including ensuring that Mr. Musaibli understood the information. Defense counsel submitted a legal objection and various other additions and corrections directly to the Probation Office. The government responded to the legal objection and other changes sought by defense counsel. Probation docketed a final presentence report on June 6, 2023.

Recognizing the complexity of sentencing given the convictions in this case and the recent docketing of the final presentence report, the parties stipulate and agree that the sentencing memoranda and any related sentencing documents should be filed on June 9, 2023. This stipulation is to extend the deadline by one day. This will ensure that the parties have three business days to review any remaining issues contained within the final presentence report and adequately provide the Court sentencing-related materials. The parties are not requesting an adjournment of the sentencing hearing date.
